20/20 - First Quarter, 1999

Sunday, January 3, 1999

"A PLACE CALLED FORGIVENESS" – Cynthia McFadden reports on highschool cheerleader Heather Rich who disappeared after an argument with her mother only to be found murdered and three teenage suspects charged – a son of wealth and privilege, an outsider with a long juvenile record and the local highschool football star. Each tells a different story about what happened that night. CHEERLEADER MURDER (Producer - Shelly Ross, PA - Jason Rovou, Correspondent - Cynthia McFadden)

Wednesday, January 6, 1999

"WHO WILL SAVE THE CHILDREN" – Chris Wallace reports on children who are dying because their parents, who belong to a religious group called The Followers, believe that faith can heal – not the doctor. They refuse to get medical help for their children – no matter how serious the situation. FAITH HEALERS (Producer - Nancy Kramer, AP - Susannah Shipman, Correspondent - Chris Wallace)

"LESLEY STAHL ON THE RUN" – Diane Sawyer looks at one of America's most admired journalists - Lesley Stahl. One of the first women to make it to the top in television news, she reveals that for years there was a secret behind the smile and how she tried to juggle motherhood, competition and a crisis at home. LESLEY STAHL (Producer - Jessica Velmans, Correspondent - Diane Sawyer)

"HELL ON WHEELS" – Perri Peltz investigates what really happens to your kids when you put them on the bus to school. A hidden camera on a bus shows what really goes on. SCHOOL BUS VIDEO (Producer - Gabriella Messina, AP - Marni Harriman, Correspondent - Perri Peltz)

Friday, January 8, 1999

"LAGENA'S STORY" – Sylvia Chase reports on Lagenia Lookabill, an actress who made one misstep and is now living and dying with the consequences. She has Aids – after a single encounter with a man who was infected. LAGENA (Producer - Ene Riisna, PA - Ani Mozian, Correspondent - Sylvia Chase)

"A SISTER'S LOVE" – Barbara Walter's reports on 15 year old Kip Kinkel, accused in the murder of his parents and a massacre at school. His sister, Kristen, talks about the brother she thought she knew. KINKEL (Producer - Martin Clancy, Producer, Andrea Amiel, Correspondent - Barbara Walters)

"WORTH STEALING" – Bill Ritter reports on a crime wave in the most amazing place. Security cameras catch thieves in the act – not for diamonds or furs – but for titanium golf clubs. Crooks - cashing in on a massive black market. GOLF CLUB THEFT (Producer - David Fitzpatrick, AP - Tom Goldstone, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

Sunday, January 10, 1999

"A FATHER AND HIS FURY" – Bill Ritter interviews Paul Neeley who is in prison after committing a violent crime after his daughter revealed a terrible secret -- she made an accusation against someone he thought was a good friend and he took revenge. RAPIST KILLER (Producer - Liza Finley, PA - Marni Harriman, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

"RESCUE AT SEA" -- Deborah Wang reports on a boat race in Australia that began as a celebrated adventure -- hundreds of the most savvy and experienced sailors ready to navigate the rough seas. How could they have known that tragedy awaited them just a few days into their journey. RESCUE AT SEA (Producer - Janet Tobias, PA - Jennifer Schultz, Correspondent - Deborah Wang)

"VIETNAM REUNION" – They kept each other alive in the jungles of Vietnam, and formed a priceless bond that survived thirty years of separation – an unlikely trio of soldiers to longed to find each other after 30 years. VIETNAM REUNION (Producer - Dean Irwin, PA - Brian Hale, Correspondent - Bob Brown)

Wednesday, January 13, 1999

"THE UNWANTED CHILDREN OF RUSSIA" – Diane Sawyer goes undercover and investigates the hidden children of Russia –hundreds of thousands of children, most abandoned by their parents. Living in institutions which use straight jackets, drugs for discipline, children left behind. 90 percent of them have parents who can't keep them or don't want them and an untold number of these children have been incorrectly labeled and institutionalized. RUSSIAN ORPHANS (Producer - Kate Harrington, AP - Jason Malony, Correspondent - Diane Sawyer)

"LARRY FLYNT'S DIRT" – Sam Donaldson interviews Larry Flynt on his crusade to help the president by offering up to $1 million to any woman who can turn a politician into a hypocrite. He's already caught Bob Livingston and he promises more bombshells – but what gives him the right? LARRY FLYNT (Producer - Howard Rosenberg, AP - Yaro Valez, Correspondent - Sam Donaldson)

"A RARE BREED" – Bob Brown with an extraordinary tribute to the quite heroes of law enforcement – the K-9 Unit. They're not just a cherished member of the family – they're also a police officer's most loyal partner -- willing to be sent into danger by the master he trusts. K-9 FUNERALS (Producer - Patricia Arica, Correspondent - Bob Brown)

Friday, January 15, 1999

"GAMBLE OF HIS LIFE" – Bill Ritter talks to Joe McNeely who is a compulsive gambler and took one last, extraordinary step to try to save himself -- he begs a number of casinos themselves for help in conquering his addiction. Instead of trying to help him, some of the casinos sent Lear jets and limousines to lure him back. Now this former prize fighter is fighting back against the casinos he says wouldn't let him to, and almost destroyed him. GAMBLING (Producer - Burt Rudman, PA - Gail Rosenberg, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

"INVISIBLE CAR" – Arnold Diaz reports on an outrageous scam involving a car called the "Gazelle" -- there were pictures of it, there were videos, there was a terrific sales pitch. But there was just one problem - there was no car. Arnold Diaz found a group of automobile dealers who spent thousands for the right to sell what they thought was a brand new sport utility vehicle - and how they say they were taken for a ride. GAZELLE (Producer - Bonnie VanGilder, PA - Kate Sheekey, Susannah Shipman, Correspondent - Arnold Diaz)

"THE UNKINDEST CUT" – Is routine circumcision a barbaric practice - or a medical necessity? Parents are confused, and not even the experts agree. Dr. Timothy Johnson examines a growing controversy over circumcision. CIRCUMCISION (Producer - Callie Crossley, PA - Ani Mozien, Correspondent - Timothy Johnson)

Sunday, January 17, 1999

"WHY DID SCOTT DIE?" – Scott Krueger was a brilliant student with a promising future. But just weeks after he left for college, he fell victim to too much alcohol. Was his fraternity alone to blame, pressuring a student who wanted to belong? Or did this renowned school fail to protect him from dangerous drinking? MIT DRINKING (Producer - Clare Kaye, PA - Angela Chambers, Correspondent - Elizabeth Vargas)

"THE ROAD NOT TAKEN" – A young newlywed stopped on the side of a busy road - slammed by a passing car as his new wife watched in horror. But the driver who took his life took off, leaving a grieving family and a mystery. Who was behind the wheel, Why did the driver disappear? What happened next shocked a community and exposed a law about hit and run drivers. HIT AND RUN (Producer - Tom Berman, PA - Tanya Henderson, Correspondent - Cynthia McFadden)

"ALL IN YOUR MIND" – Imagine lying on an operating table, nervously awaiting painful surgery and a hypnotist is called in, rather than an anesthesiologist. John Stossel investigates how some patients are making that choice - choosing hypnotism to deal with their pain, instead of drugs. MEDICAL HYPNOSIS (Producer - Justin Sturkyn, PA - Jean Alter, Correspondent - John Stossel)

Wednesday, January 20, 1999

"SILENT SCREAMS" – John Quinones investigates a bizarre mystery along the U.S.-Mexican border. Who is killing these women? One after the other, month after month – scores of girls found dead in the desert – nearly 200 murdered in all. The women and girls were part of a growing army of Mexicans working in American-owned factories along the border. These workers make things that you buy - but you may be surprised to see how they live. JUAREZ MURDERS (Producer - Robert Campos, Correspondent - John Quinones)

"EAT, DRINK AND BE WARY" – Dr. Nancy Snyderman looks at how men and women are different when it comes to drinking alcohol – how even moderate amounts of alcohol may be dangerous to women. Research reveals some fascinating things not just about alcohol, but how males and females are different. WOMEN & ALCOHOL (Producer - Alison Sespon, PA - Valerie Parker, Correspondent - Nancy Snyderman)

"THE SERPANTS AND THE CHILDREN" – Five children left alone in this world - orphaned after their mother and father died practicing their religion. Their parents were snake handlers. But what should happen now to their children? Should they be raised as their parents would have raised them, in the church of their belief, or should they be taken somewhere else for safe-keeping? SNAKE HANDLERS (Producer - Tammy Weitzman, AP - Kristen Whiting, PA - Maura Riley, Correspondent - Tom Jarriel)

Friday, January 22, 1999

"HONOR KILLINGS" – Diane Sawyer investigates a place where murders are hailed as heroes – a custom that rewards families for killing their own daughters – where fathers and brothers stalk the women they say they love. Right now, thousands of women are living in fear - and if they survive, they are forced to spend their entire lives in hiding. An ancient code designated to keep women from living independent lives. HONOR KILLINGS (Producer - Alice Pfifer, AP - Christina Romano, PA - Myrna Toledo)

"WHO'S CALLING THE SHOTS?" – A medical controversy that is pitting some parents against the law and leaving others searching for answers about what to do for their children. The Hep B vaccine is required for school-age children in 36 states - that many well respected health organizations say is safe and effective. But some people believe it can be the cause of severe and mystifying illness - even death. HEPATITIS B (Producer - Bonnie Goldstein, PA - Tanya Henderson, Correspondent - Sylvia Chase)

"DEADLY FOOD" – Arnold Diaz investigates how a number of people have gotten very sick and even dies after eating hot dogs that contained a dangerous bacteria, Lysteria, and shows us what to look for and how to cook food to avoid becoming ill. SARA LEE (Producer - Glenn Ruppel, PA - Sandra Temko)

Sunday, January 24, 1999

"THE SECRET LIFE OF BOYS" -- A major, eye-opening examination of how we raise our boys, are we doing it all wrong? The rules boys live by—be tough, don't cry, don't show your emotions. How do they get that message? From friends, fathers, even moms, but hiding emotions can have serious consequences. How do you get boys to share their feelings without losing face? John Stossel brings you expert advice and revelations that could change the way we bring up boys. BOYS (Producer - Alison Hockenberry, AP - Nancy Gammerman, PA - Maura Riley) O.A.D. 6/5/98

"A WOMAN'S GREATEST FEAR" - Lynn Sherr reports the poignant story of two sisters from a family prone to breast cancer and the dramatically different paths they choose. BREAST CANCER GENE (Producer - Alan Goldberg, AP - Danielle Parker) O.A.D. 10/23/97

"SEARING MEMORIES" -- Like many of the 88 thousand people who have emigrated to this country from Bosnia, Kemal Mehinivich claims he was tortured. Imagine how he felt when he discovered his alleged tormentor was living along side of him in America. BOSNIA TORTURE (Producer - Howie Masters, AP - Suzannah Shipman, Correspondent - Tom Jarriel)

"A DEVINE HUNGER" -- Lynn Sherr reports on a baby named David who at 20 months old weighed only 15 pounds and was found near starvation allegedly because his parents believed he was a holy child who had to be kept pure in body and spirit by an extreme diet. Last Fall after a three-state chase, the state of Utah took the baby and arrested both mother and father on charges of child abuse. CHRIST CHILD (Producer - Steve Schnee, AP - Sara Holmberg)

"VIDEO VOYEURISM" -- Is somebody secretly watching your every move - even in your own home. John Quinones tells us an extraordinary story about how a voyeur used high tech equipment to boldly watch his neighbors most private moments. VIDEO VOYEURISM (Producer - Lee Hoffman, PA - Hillery Tullin, Correspondent - John Quinones)

Friday, January 29, 1999

"WITNESS" -- Charles Gibson reports on the 8 year old who put his life on the line to testify about a violent crime he had witnessed - but he never got the chance. He was gunned down. How did the system, and the adults who run it, fail him in so many ways. CHILD WITNESS (Producer - David Fitzpatrick, PA - Angela Chambers)

"JUDGE JUDY" -- John Stossel interviews Judge Judy - the take no prisoners judge who like people to say what they mean and mean what they say. John Stossel takes you behind the scenes of her hit television show. JUDGE JUDY (Producer - Penny Flemming, PA - Jean Alter)

"A RISKY DELIVERY" -- Dr. Nancy Snyderman investigates on a device called the Vacuum Extractor which is being used instead of forceps in difficult deliveries and that if used the wrong way can turn births into tragedies. Many doctors don't even know about this problem and most expectant couples don't know about it either. VACUUM BIRTHS (Producer - Andrea Fleisher, PA - Susan Krinsky)

Sunday, January 31, 1999

Pre-empted

Monday, February 1, 1999

"BROKEN PROMISES, SHATTERED LIVES" -- Connie Chung tells the story of good intentions that met a bad end. Imagine walking into a meeting with mobsters while wearing a hidden microphone. Think of the courage that takes. Connie Chung talks to two men who did just that. They weren't undercover cops -- they were ordinary citizens -- they were reluctant, but a government anti-mob task force asked them to help. NO PROTECTION (Producer - Bill McGowen, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"G.M.A.B. - P.C. LANGUAGE" – John Stossel investigates political correctness run amuck – it involves a city official using the word "niggardly" which some people mistook as a racial slur. P.C. LANGUAGE (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

"A STAR RE-BORN" – Charles Gibson talks to Charlie Sheen for the first time about his burned out years and his painful attempts to re-claim his life. After months of rehabilitation, Charlie Sheen is ready to talk about what he went through. CHARLIE SHEEN (Producer - Jeff Diamond, PA - Angela Chambers)

Wednesday, February 3, 1999

"COPS SELLING GUNS" – Chris Wallace in a 20/20 hidden camera investigation. Guess who might be the biggest gun dealer in your area? The local police. Thousands of guns - confiscated from criminals sold at police auctions, and unbelievably put back on the streets. Cheap Saturday night specials bundled up in lots and sold by police at bargain prices. RECYCLED GUNS (Producer - Stuart Harris)

"BLINDED BY LOVE" – The secret affair that turned deadly - a murder trial at the highest levels of Delaware government that gripped the nation. For years Debbie Macintyre concealed her illicit love for Thomas Capano. She didn't know this pillar of the community had a roster of secret lovers, including the one he murdered. CAPANO (Producer - John Siceloff, AP - Ruth Reiss, PA - Stephanie Hirsh, Correspondent - Charles Gibson)

"DANGER ON WHEELS" – Arnold Diaz investigates a danger to your children you might not suspect when you go shopping. More and more young children are being injured in shopping cart-related accidents - and it can happen even when the child is wearing a seat belt. Arnold Diaz shows you what to look for. SHOPPING CART SAFETY (Producer - John Wassley, PA - Sun Min)

Friday, February 5, 1999

"WAKING UP TOO SOON" – A bizarre experience you won't believe. It happens to thousands of patients in the operating room. They've been put under with anesthesia, but it isn't enough. You're desperate to cry out, but you can't - you struggle to move, but you're paralyzed - the doctor thinks you're asleep but you're not. We'll show you how it can happen and the revolutionary machine that may end the nightmare. ANESTHESIA AWARE (Producer - Barb Koster, PA - Brian Hale, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

"ERASING RACE" – The face of beauty - does it always have to look the same? But millions of Americans don't have that look and some feel the pressure to change. It's the latest in plastic surgery - patients pursuing a white, Anglo-Saxon ideal. Perri Peltz discovers a surprising trend in the search for beauty. ERASING ETHNICITY (Producer - Marc Dorian, PA - Jennifer Fukui)

"GEORGE CARLIN" – Bob Brown talks to George Carlin - an intimate look at the man behind the routine - the family secrets and the tragedy that drew a father and daughter closer together. The years of destructive behavior, the daughter who had enough and the devoted wife he loved and lost. GEORGE CARLIN (Producer - Joe Piffifferling, AP - Trish Arico)

"FREE AT LAST" – The outrageous story of a woman wronged - put behind bars for decades after crossing paths with a corrupt cop. Year after year she claimed she had been framed. There was no evidence against her, but she had been forced to sign a confession. Elizabeth Vargas with a story of power and abuse and justice denied. BETTY TYSON (Producer - Peter Klein, AP - Deborah Katz)

"IS YOUR CHILD SAFE" – Bill Ritter with a vital report no parent should miss. Experts say 4 out of 5 car seats are incorrectly installed by parents. Bill Ritter takes us through the dangers and shows you step-by-step what you can do to help your child survive in a crash. CAR SEATS (Producer - Brian Hyland)

"A PATH OF DESTRUCTION" -- Imagine standing on your porch and suddenly you see the mountain start to move towards you. A giant wall of mud, trees and boulders coming at you so fast, you can't outrun it. That frightening scenario is being played out more often than you think in America. More and more houses are being built in areas prone to mudslides. People have been buried alive. Could your house be in danger without your even knowing it? MUDSLIDES (Producer - Bill Wilson, PA - Tom Goldstone, Correspondent - Michael Guillen)

"THE SWEETEST ADDICTION" -- Many of us love and crave chocolate. And now scientists are finding out why. It turns that that chocolate may contain some mood enhancing chemicals that really might make you happier. CHOCOLATE (Producer - Joy Ciarcia-Levy, PA - Eric Strauss, Correspondent - Perri Peltz)

Monday, February 8, 1999

"CLEARING HIS NAME" -- It was a vile crime that shocked and appalled the entire nation. A young girl is the victim - telling a nightmarish tale of abduction and rape. But Steven Pagones was blamed for the assault - a crime that may never have happened. He became the target of taunts that brought a torrent of death threats - one man's life ruined for a lie that would not die PAGONES (Producer - Chris Whipple, AP - Jimmy Altman, PA - Jean Alter, Correspondent - Charlie Gibson)

"LUCK BE A LADY" -- They could be your mother, wife or sister - they're women lured by the love of gambling. Some spend hours at the slots tossing away hundreds of dollars. Why are so many attracted to gambling? Perri Peltz with women, sometimes desperate to beat the odds. WOMEN AND GAMBLING (Producer - Mary Raffalli, PA - Mary Healy)

"THE NIGHT VISITORS" -- They come at night and take control of your mind - dreams that haunt you again and again. Michael Guillen has the story of people deeply affected by their recurring dreams, driven to learn what they mean. RECURRING DREAMS (Producer - Joy Ciarcia-Levy, PA - Eric Strauss)

Wednesday, February 10, 1999

"THE WAVE OF THE FUTURE" -- This Navy man was on a mission in U.S. waters and says a Russian spy ship took aim at him with a laser. It's one of the terrifying weapons of the 21st Century. You can't see them but just watch what they can do -- computers crashing, cars stopped dead. Diane Sawyer travels to a testing ground for a first hand look at what sounds like science fiction, but it's very real. CYBER TERRORISM (Producer - Joan Martelli, PA - Gail Rosenberg, Correspondent - Diane Sawyer)

"CLEANING UP" -- Chris Wallace asks what's your cleaner doing when you're not at home? Hidden cameras capture an outrageous crime committed right in your own home. You hire someone to clean, but are you really hiring a thief? Cleaning people caught in the act, sneaking around, stealing cash and your trust. MAID SERVICE (Producer - Jackie Payson, PA - Erika Starke)

"ALIVE" -- Elizabeth Vargas with an incredible story of one terrifying night. The wrath of mother nature - teenagers alone on a mountain suddenly caught in a blinding snowstorm with no food, no water no rescue in sight. They spent the night in the bitter cold, and did everything they could to keep themselves alive. AVALANCHE (Producer - Lee Hoffman, PA - Brian Hale, PA - Marilyn Heck, PA - Vivian Hernandez)

Friday, February 12, 1999

"THE BOY IN THE CAGE" -- John Quinones tells the story of a little boy. He spent two years eating and sleeping confined in a cage, 20 hours a day for two years -- and child welfare officials let it happen. His situation might make you despair of what some children have to endure, but this story takes a turn that will lift your spirits and restore your faith in humanity. CAGED BOY (Producer - Sara Koch, PA - Sandra Temko)

"THE SOUND OF HER MUSIC" – Barbara Walters talks to Julie Andrews and the throat surgery that damaged her vocal cords and made her unable to sing and may have ended her career as a singer and theatre actress. JULIE ANDREWS (Producer - Nola Safro, PA - Jennifer Fukui)

Monday, February 15, 1999

"THE GREAT PRETENDER" – Connie Chung with an astounding story of trickery and deception. Michael Backman - career criminal. He pretended to be the nephew of Diana Ross, he conned a congressman, he even scammed the military. But his most incredible deception was yet to come - a grown man going back to high school pretending to be a teenager/ HIGH SCHOOL HIDEOUT (Producer - Teri Whitcraft, PA - Jean Alter)

"CHASE AWAY THE DARKNESS" – Elizabeth Vargas with the incredible story of Tori Amos, her victory over violence and humiliation and how her song changed the lives of other women. These young women, survivors of unspeakable violence - victims of assault that left them unable to confront the hurt and shame until they heard the singer and her song. TORI AMOS (Producer - Mark Dorian, AP - Stefanie Hirsh)

"THE YOUNG MAN'S CANCER" -- Dr. Timothy Johnson on the type of cancer to strike young males - Testicular cancer. A recent study has shown a 60% increase in the disease over the last 30 years and no one is quite sure why. But testicular cancer is 90% curable if its caught early. The trouble is, most men are too shy or squeamish to do the one, simple thing that could detect the cancer - a self-examination. TESTICULAR CANCER (Producer - Carole Radziwill, AP - Angela Chambers)

Wednesday, February 17, 1999

"NEEDY OR GREEDY" – Chris Wallace investigates people who are driving big fancy cars and living in luxury homes, all while collecting thousands of dollars, and other government benefits, from welfare. You may have thought that with welfare reform, taxpayer money is finally going to the truly needy, but you're about to discover you are wrong. RICH ON WELFARE (Producer - Greg Fisher, AP, Robin Brown)

"THE NIGHT PHIL HARTMAN DIED (2 PTS)" – Elizabeth Vargas with an intimate portrait on the murder/suicide that stunned Hollywood. Celebrated comedian Phil Hartman, shot to death by his wife Brynn - and no one saw it coming. Tonight, as those closet to the couple still search for answers, they share private moments from the Hartman family album. Why would this beautiful woman destroy everything she cherished most. PHIL HARTMAN (Producer - Elizabeth Osisek, PA - Susan Krisky)

Friday, February 19, 1999

"THOSE WERE OUR CHILDREN" – Brian Ross investigates an incredible story that is emerging from a catastrophic accident. When an 18-wheel truck and a family van filled with sleeping children crossed paths on a Midwest highway, profound tragedy resulted and a huge political scandal erupted from the flames. TRUCKER LICENSES (Producer - Bob Keating)

"THE DAUGHTERS' QUEST" – Cynthia McFadden with an exclusive interview on signing legend Tammy Wynette who last April died suddenly under circumstances that seemed strange, at least to three of her daughters. And they are now raising provocative questions, among them, who wasn't the death reported sooner and why was the police report filled out incompletely. TAMMY (Producer - Tammy, Tammy Weitzman, Jessica Velmans, PA, Hillary Tullin, Erica Starke)

Sunday, February 21, 1999

Pre-empted

Monday, February 22, 1999

"A KILLER IN DISGUISE" – Forest Sawyer with a in-depth look at a case that involves one of the youngest women ever sentenced to life in prison in her state. Lisa Michelle Lambert was convicted of the gruesome murder of another teenage girl, a rival who had dated her boyfriend. But it's not just the vicious crime or the tender ages of those involved that make Lisa Lambert's story so remarkable. They're just the starting point of a case that took on a bizarre and fascinating life of its own. LISA LAMBERT (Producer

- Janice Tobias, AP - Moira McCann, Eric Avram)

Wednesday, February 24, 1999

"SEARCH FOR PEACE" -- Peggy Wehmeyer with the story of a man hunted down by his own conscience. He was a loving father, devoted to his church, but one day he walked into a police station and confessed to a murder he committed 19 years ago. Police weren't looking for him, but he could not forget and now he and his family must pay the price. (Producer - Joanna Breen, AP - Eileen Murphy, PA - Eric Strauss)

"G.M.A.B./WAKCY LABELS" -- John Stossel on warning labels. Everywhere you look these days, even on all kinds of familiar consumer products there are crazy warning labels. John Stossel thinks a lot of those wacky warning labels should be replaced with something simpler and more direct. WARNING LABELS (Producer - Frank Silverstein)

"DON'T PANIC" -- Jay Schadler reports on a kind of pain that is at once invisible and terrifying. Panic attacks. In its most extreme form, people are so paralyzed with fear, that for years they are unable even to leave their own homes. But now there is a pioneering new therapy that in many cases may be an alternative to drugs and months or even years of traditional therapy.

Friday, February 26, 1999

"PLAYING TO LOSE" -- Brian Ross on athletes who took money to throw games. Instead of playing to win, they were playing to lose. Why do they do this? There's a trend on college campuses few parents are aware of. Illegal sports betting, a big business among college students and growing. COLLEGE GAMBLING (Producer - Brenda Breslauer, AP - Matthew Karatz)

"MOTHER'S MILK" -- Cynthia McFadden investigates a controversial case about to go to trial. A newborn boy, breastfed from birth. Now his young mother is charged with his death. Was this a senseless tragedy, or did she commit an unthinkable crime. BREAST FEEDING (Producer - Beth Osisek, PA - Susan Krisky)

"FAST, FUN AND DEADLY" -- They are powerful vehicles that can reach breathtaking speeds. Millions of snowmobiles are careening across the hills this winter. But there's something you should know about these popular machines. Almost anyone can take the wheel - teenagers, thrill seekers with no experience, even drivers who have been drinking. Bill Ritter with a timely warning. SNOWMOBILES (Producer - Michael Salort, PA - Tanya Henderson)

Sunday, February 28, 1999 9:00-10:00PM ET/PT

"ONE MAN, MANY WIVES" -- John Quinones with the shocking investigation of women who are refugees from a secret world where they say incestuous marriages are routinely arranged, where daughters are molested and wives are frightened into silence. Polygamy was banned by the Mormon church more than a century ago. But there is a small group today that continue to defy the law and the church by practicing polygamy. POLYGAMY (Producer - Sam Fine, PA - Frank Silverstein)

"A HEART OF FIRE" -- Bob Brown with the story of a remarkable women, burned in childhood she spent her life conquering her fear of fire and helping children who carry the same scars. HEARTS OF FIRE (Producer - Abby Rockmore, PA - Eric Strauss)

"GIRLS ON THE TEAM" -- John Stossel looks at co-ed wrestling. Soccer and softball are one thing, but how do you feel about teenagers, in skin tight clothes, grappling and tugging, rolling around on top of each other. More and more girls are joining the wrestling team and some people say that it breaks some kind of taboo. WOMEN & WRESTLING (Producer - Frank Mastropolo, PA - Brian Hale)

Monday, March 1, 1999

Wednesday, March 3, 1999 9:00-11:00PM ET

"MONICA LEWINSKY INTERVIEW" - In an extended edition of ABC News "20/20", Monica Lewinsky finally breaks her silence. In a Barbara Walters exclusive interview, the former White House intern, whose affair with the president of the United States made her an international public figure, speaks candidly about her experience.

Friday, March 5, 1999

"TEEN PROSTITUTION" - A young woman is seduced by a handsome stranger into the world of teen prostitution. For the first time, the former teen prostitute speaks about her experience -- a harrowing tale of sex, drugs and violent abuse.

"SURROGATE BIRTHS" - ABC News correspondent Sylvia Chase reports on how a recent legal decision in California has added to the growing trend among gay couples to use surrogates to become parents.

"COSMETIC DENTISTRY" - ABC News reports on the latest craze in cosmetic dentistry. Growing in popularity, meet a "grin guru" and find out why so many people are signing up for new smiles.

Sunday, March 7, 1999

"INNOCENT BY DNA" - After 17 years in prison for murder, man proven innocent by DNA; Kevin Green insisted he was innocent, remained behind bars for years until a young detective reopened the case -- and found someone else had committed the crime.

"OVERWEIGHT" - For many overweight people, losing the pounds is only the beginning of their struggle. Total body lifts -- while the surgery -- which acts like a face lift for the entire body -- is both expensive and painful, one patient says the results are well worth the trouble.

Monday, March 8, 1999

"A WOMEN'S RIGHT - A WOMEN'S RISK" - Because of the turmoil and threat of violence, the number of doctors in America willing to perform an abortion is declining. In 86% of U.S. Counties, there is no doctor willing to perform the procedure. Has this affected the quality of care for women seeking one? Abortion is considered to be a safe medical procedure. Patient deaths are rare. On average, one death is reported out of 150 thousand. So when four deaths in five years occurred in clinics owned by one man Brian Ross went looking for answers. ABORTION (Producer - Jill Rackmill)

"THE CHECK'S IN THE MAIL" - They're so hard to resist, those sweepstakes that come in the mail, but are they really proclaiming you the big winner, promising you a fortune? Or is it a clever come on, putting money in their pockets, taking from yours. Arnold Diaz with a warning for anyone who's ever been tempted by the lure of the sweepstakes. SWEEPSTAKES (Producer - David Shapinsky, PA - Mary Healy)

"SOOTHING THE SAVAGE BEAST" - Have you ever wanted to fly into a rage - blow your stock - give them a piece of your mind. This man says it's healthy to let off steam with a ranting, fuming, blood-boiling tantrum - and his students say it makes them feel great. But this scientist warns, you'd better keep a lid on that anger. Is it better to hold it in or tell them where to go. John Stossel investigates. ANGER (Producer - Steve Brand - PA - Deborah Runice)

Wednesday, March 10, 1999

"THE DOCTOR'S DEADLY RX" -- Cynthia McFadden in an exclusive interview with Dr. Richard Schmidt. A highly respected doctor who was convicted of injecting his mistress, Janice Trahern, with the HIV virus. He was charged with attempted murder, but his worst act one of really betraying his wife? HIV (Producer - Terry Wrong, AP - Kristin Whiting, PA - Trish Arico)

"ALL TOO HUMAN" -- For most of the decade George Stephanopolous has been a part of our public life. First as a spokesman for the Clinton campaign and the White House and now as commentator at ABC News. Stephanopolous talks to Diane Sawyer about his private journey alongside Bill Clinton, whom he now describes as "A President he wanted to serve, but a man he didn't want to see." Since so many former members of the White House team have criticized Clinton, you have to ask this question: Do aides have a duty to remain loyal to them? STEPHANOPOLOUS (Producer - Carole Radziwill, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"SMALL TOWN SECRETS" -- For the second time in less than six months, the Country has come face to face with a certain kind of hate. Last October, the victim was a gay college student in Wyoming. Now, a small town in Alabama is reeling from the brutal murder of one of its own. John Quinones discovered a troubling undercurrent in a small town that may have led to murder. ALABAMA MURDER (Producer - Elizabeth Osisek, AP - Christina Romano - PA - Kira Kay)

Friday, March 12, 1999

"REBELLION IN THE RANKS" -- The Pentagon has ordered all U.S. Service personnel to be vaccinated against Anthrax, a deadly biological weapon. Officials say the vaccine is safe, that it could save many lives. But dozens of men and women are refusing to follow their orders. Sam Donaldson with this potentially explosive rebellion in the ranks. ANTHRAX (Producer - Howard Rosenberg, AP - Phu Nguyen)

"THE NORTH POLE" -- A magical expedition to a place rarely seen. Hugh Downs heads to the North Pole - a place where few men or women have gone before -- a place that is constantly shifting in location, but one that is frozen in time. NORTH POLE (AP - James Altman)

"WOMEN AND VIAGRA" -- We know now what Viagra can do for a man's sex life. But, can it work for women too? It's estimated that nearly one out of every 3 women suffers from some sexual dysfunction. Perri Peltz reports on clinical trials already underway - testing the effects of Viagra on women. WOMEN AND VIAGRA (Producer - Gwen Gowen, PA - Rosa Cho)

"GMAB/SCARY MOVIES" -- How long was it before you could take a shower after seeing Psycho? Do scary movies leave us with a lingering sense of fear? Should your children watch them? Bill Ritter with the lasting horror of horror movies. SCARY MOVIES (Producer - Frank Mastropolo, PA - Myrna Toledo)

Sunday, March 14, 1999

"SAVED FROM DEATH ROW" -- Terry Moran with the story of Rolando Cruz. An outrageous miscarriage of justice - an innocent man comes within hours of execution for a crime he didn't commit - the murder of a little girl. Now the people who put Rolando Cruz on death row are on trial themselves - seven prosecutors and police officers charged with framing an innocent man. ROLANDO CRUZ (Producer - John Siceloff, PA - Minda Allarde)

"WOMEN DOING TIME" -- Diane Sawyer spends two days as a prisoner and gives us a rare and compelling glimpse into an extraordinary world - hidden behind bars. Today there are nearly two million people in American jails and prisons, and it turns out that the number of women in prison is growing faster than the number of men. WOMEN IN PRISON (Producer - Alison Sesnon, AP - Ruth Reis)

"FALLEN ANGEL" -- Connie Chung with a story of a man who led two lives - one devoted to religion, the other to money and mistresses. The reverend Henry Lyons earned the loyal support of millions as head of the National Baptist Convention, America's oldest black church group. So you can imagine the shock when charges surfaced that he misspent millions of dollars and led a decidedly un-holy private life. REVEREND (Producer - Joanna Breen, Producer - Catherine Upin, AP - Erica Starke)

"MIRACLE INCHES" -- Dr. Timothy Johnson with a modern medical miracle - surgeons using ordinary tools to give patients what nature didn't - height. A technique performed with drills, wrenches and hammers, common tools that can produce uncommon results - adding 3 or five or even 12 inches of height. BONE LENGTHENING (Producer - Joan LeFosse)

"THE LION IN WINTER" -- Chris Wallace with a portrait of Arnold Palmer who speaks candidly about his battle with cancer and the world of big-time sports he helped create - and some of the spoiled stars now in the spotlight. ARNOLD PALMER (Producer - Jackie Payson, AP - Jim Altman)

Wednesday, March 17, 1999

"DANGEROUS TERRITORY" -- Jay Schadler with a story of thousands of thousands of young people moving from bar to bar all night long, weekend after weekend. Many of them still in high school, who have found a way to thwart the law in this Country, they're too young to drink here. Instead they cross the boarder to Tijuana looking for a night of fun. TIJUANA DRINKING (Producer - David Perozzi, PA - Eric Araya)

"BROKEN BONDS" -- Diane Sawyer with a report on neglect and abuse of the elderly. Reported incidents increased 150 percent in just 10 years with family members, most often children, who have turned on their own parents. AGING (Producers - Joan Martelli, Karen Burns, PAs - Sylvia Johnson, Vivian Hernandez)

"HIGH SCHOOL HEROS" -- Bill Ritter with an amazing story on what it takes to be a hero. Among the passengers who were on board the Amtrack train that crashed were some high school students on an annual class trip. What they did to survive the disaster and then save their fellow passengers will make you proud. TRAIN WRECK (Producer - Burt Rudman, David Fitzpatrick)

"A GOOD HEART ATTACK" -- Dr. Timothy Johnson with an incredible new treatment for heart patients. Patients actually being given a heart attack by their own doctors. It's a medical experiment that may revolutionize the treatment of certain severe heart ailments, saving many patients from open heart surgery. LAB ATTACK (Producer - Barbara Nienaltowski, PA - Tanya Henderson)

Friday, March 19, 1999

"DANGEROUS INFORMANTS" -- Elizabeth Vargas reports on convicted criminals who are being put back on the streets instead of in prison and allowed to roam freely, with the blessing of the U.S. Government. They are federal informants and they work undercover gathering evidence against other criminals. These informants are there to help us. But some are dangerous, even violent, and sometimes it doesn't take them long to return to a life of crime. INFORMANTS (Producer - Bob Keating, PA - Tom Goldstone)

"IF IN DOUBT, THROW IT OUT" - Arnold Diaz reports on what health hazards may be lying in your own refrigerator. In test after test, in home after home 2found unacceptable levels of bacteria in leftovers. REFRIGERATOR (Producer - Michael Salort, PA - Jennifer Schultz)

"THE LITTLE DOG THAT COULD" -- Often, those of us who love dogs feel that they can read our mood. But how many of us can say that our dog can sense our every need? Bob Brown tells a story of a little dog whose job it is to do just that. His name is Delta, and he's not like any dog you've ever met before. AMAZING DOGS (Producer - Barbara Nienaltowski, PA - Rosa Cho)

Sunday, March 21, 1999

Monday, March 22, 1999

"PLAYING WITH DANGER" – As any parent knows, a new child comes with all kinds of accessories: playpens, strollers, car seats etc. They're all designed to make parenting a little easier and to keep your child safe. But a 20/20 consumer investigation has turned up an alarming fact. Too many parents may be using potentially hazardous products without knowing it. JUVENILE RECALLS (Producer - Andrea Fleisher, AP - Valerie Parker, Correspondent - Arnold Diaz)

"SIGHT UNSEEN" - It's a problem we've all had behind the wheel - squinting into the glaring sunshine to see highway ahead – drivers running down pedestrians in broad daylight, and the police say the problem is more common than you think. Michael Guillen looks in why this happens. DRIVING BLIND (Producer - Kathleen Friery, PA - Eric Strauss)

"A MAN OF ENDURANCE" – A gripping story of determination – he was a young man with a bright future, until a horrible accident left him scarred and blind. He could have given up, but instead, his life has become a lesson for others. Bob Brown with the inspiring story of Dax Cowart. DAX'S STORY (Producer - Joe Pfifferling; AP - Pat Arico)

Wednesday, March 24, 1999

"A DANGEROUS INVESTMENT" -- The giant roller coaster of Wall Street is unnerving enough, but it turns out there is something else you should know about. Chris Wallace's investigation reveals an alarming new trend in the financial world - the growing use of heroin among people who manage your money. HEROIN ON WALL STREET (Producer - Kim Skeen, AP - Robin Brown, PA - John Garcia)

"THE LOST CHILDREN" – John Quinones talks to a group of mothers with an incredible story to tell. They are women with no money and no prospects, struggling to stop what they see as a heartless attack on their families – their children are being taken away and sent to grow up with other families. BRAZILLIAN ADOPTION (Producer - John Siceloff, PA - Vivien Hernandez-Ortez)

"YOUR LIFE IS ON THE LINE" -- In desperate situations, many find that their fate may be in the hands of the strangers who take their call in a 911 emergency center. Phyllis May knows this all too well, as her daughter was found by police, strangled to death, after she made several attempts to contact the emergency operator during her assault. Although Ms. May believes her daughter would be here today if there had been a better response by 911, some may argue that an improved reaction from 911 operators might not have prevented this tragedy. Experts say 911 emergency center mishaps occur every week in the United States. Is the general public at risk? Tom Jarriel reports. 911 CALL (Producer - Kathleen Friery; PA - Susan Krisky)

Friday, March 26, 1999

"MARCH MADNESS" – The intensely competitive arena of collegiate sports has bred an environment many suspect is riddled with bribery, cheating and general misconduct. Now, Jan Gangelhoff, the former office manager and academic counselor for players of the University of Minnesota men's basketball team has come forward on "20/20" in her first prime-time television appearance, with allegations of academic fraud. Deborah Roberts reports on the controversy ignited by Gangelhoff's claims that she had routinely done course work for players on the team. MINNESOTA BASKETBALL (Producer - David Fitzpatrick; AP - Phu Nguyen, PA - Sun Min)

"STRAIGHT EDGE" – John Quoins reports on the rapidly growing, controversial teenage group called the "Straight Edge." With an estimated 2000 followers in the state of Utah alone, the Straight Edge movement has emerged mainly among white upper-middle class families across the country. Although members adhere to a strict anti-drug philosophy and endorse several sociopolitical principles, police agencies nationwide have expressed concern about their sporadic use of violence to enforce these ideals. STRAIGHT EDGE (Producer - John Bilotta; PA - David Byrd)

"DR. SARNO'S CURE" -- Millions of Americans suffer from chronic back pain. We buy special pillows, special chairs, we do exercises, take pills and sometimes resort to surgery. But there are times when none of it works. John Stossel tells us about a controversial but simple treatment that could end your years of suffering. DR. SARNO (Producer - Ene Riisna; PA - Deborah Runcie)

Sunday, March 28, 1999

"SEX, LIES, & VIDEOTAPE" - How far would you go to catch your wife with another man? Keith Martin of Clifton, VA, hid a tiny camera inside his wife's TV set. You won't believe what he saw...and neither did he? Now, as Deborah Roberts reports, he's suing the man that betrayed his trust. SEX, LIES, & VIDEOTAPE (Producer - Karen Saunders, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"SAM MANZIE" -- You have seen the dark side of the new computer technology. The internet gives a child access to the best minds in the world and the sickest. That point was driven home recently in a case that made sensational headlines. Barbara Walters reports on an 11-year old boy, killed while selling candy door-to-door in the neighborhood. A 15 year old boy named Sam Manzie was charged with the murder. MANZIE (Producer - Martin Clancy, PA - Jennifer Fukui)
